

Human immunodeficiency virus, or HIV, attacks the body's immune system. Without treatment, HIV can lead to AIDS. There is no cure for HIV. Proper medical care can help control the virus. If you are living with HIV, resources and support are available.

Testing — The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention recommends that everyone ages 13 to 64 get an HIV test at least once as part of routine health care. Pregnant people and those with other risk factors may need to test more often. You can get this test at no cost.

Care management — If you need help managing your health or navigating HIV health services, Blue Cross Complete of Michigan's care management team can help. Call 1-888-288-1722 from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Thursday, or 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday. TTY users, call 1-888-987-5832. You can talk with a nurse for individual assistance. Our 24-hour Nurse Helpline is also available seven days a week. Call 1-888-288-1724. (TTY: 1-888-987-5832).

PrEP medication — Medicaid and Blue Cross Complete cover PrEP medication. If you have questions about your coverage, call our Pharmacy Customer Service at 1-888-288-3231 from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday. TTY users, call 1-888-988 0071. For more information, visit Michigan PrEP at Michigan.gov/miprep or call the Michigan HIV/STI hotline at 1-800-872-2437.

Mental health services — It's important to take care of your mental health when managing HIV. No-cost counseling services are available if you are experiencing anxiety, depression or substance abuse. Talking about personal topics is a normal part of health care. Sharing how you feel can be a good conversation starter. Visit Blue Cross Complete's Find a Doctor page to find a mental health provider. Some providers may offer telehealth or flexible hours. If you're having a mental health crisis, call or text 988. If you might harm yourself or others, call 911.

Community resources — Blue Cross Complete works with supportive organizations that can connect you to resources including food banks, financial assistance, and housing services. To search, go to our Community Resource Hub and type in your ZIP code. You can also learn more about Blue Cross Complete's LGBTQ+ services and resources by visiting mibluecrosscomplete.com/lgbtq+.

Transportation — You can get transportation to covered services, including mental health visits and trips to the pharmacy. Visit our Transportation page to schedule a ride. Or download the Modivcare mobile app on Google Play[™] or the App Store[®].* You'll need an
